Spiff up your winter travels with these ingenious accessories.

Travel Pillow

FOR LUXE SHUT-EYE

A cozy answer to icky plane pillows from Sweden's foremost bed maker. Unzip for full coverage or tote around at a highly portable 23 inches. $75; hastens.com

Aluminum Wallet

FOR STURDY SAFEKEEPING

Protect cards and cash with Ogon Design's lightweight, durable billfold (in cool metallic colors), which contains seven PVC-lined pockets. $39; samflaxny.com

Clip-on Earphones

FOR EASY LISTENING

Instead of in your ear, these innovative Outi earphones clip onto the lobes (like earrings). There's minimal chance of hearing damage, and you can actually converse without removing them. $100-$105; zelco.com

Convertible Tote

FOR FLEXIBLE FLYERS

This just might be the ultimate travel bag: It's roomy enough to hold new treasures and folds over to become a sleek evening purse. A computer compartment and shoulder strap add even more functionality. $198; haydenhamett.com

Tie Case

FOR SHARP DRESSING

This clever leather case ensures perfectly pressed ties, no matter how cramped your bag. $20; troika-usa.com

Winter Chapeaux

FOR TOASTY HEADS

Invest in one of these chic hats—in supple cashmere ($165; stewartbrown.com) or Arctic-glam faux fur ($64; 66north.com)—and you won't shiver through your next cold-weather journey.
